Catalyst

Delivering engaging digital customer experiences

Digital wealth management platform to deliver flexible and customisable online experiences for advisers, employers and members, processed straight through to the back office platform.

In an increasingly digital world, Catalyst is the responsive, content driven solution to engage your online customers. Supporting both retail and employer solutions, Catalyst enables self-service in an unrivalled experience that today's consumers expect.

Built on a modern open architecture, Catalyst combines data, tools and content to provide a holistic wealth experience. The suite of transactional user journeys removes the impact on the back office and reduces operational costs.

Features

Lower costs through automation

Full breadth of self-servicing journeys to allow advisers and investors to onboard and transact online with straight through processing to the back office.

Boost user engagement

Tailor the customer experience to your proposition, with self-managed content and configuration overlaid across a core set of user tested features.

Innovate and scale your offering

Power the latest propositions and disrupt established business models by incorporating third party components, tools and multi platform data aggregation on a modern technology stack.

We are delighted to have GBST as the strategic technology partner for our new proposition, VitalityInvest. GBST's innovative solutions will enable us to deliver a rich and engaging customer experience and allow advisers to seamlessly access our portfolio of investment, life and health products.

Self-servicing journeys

Catalyst empowers your advisers, employers and members to engage and transact online. This integrates seamlessly into the administration platform, lowering operational costs, removing re-keying and automating the back office.

Select from a broad set of pre-integrated user journeys by persona to maximise the self-service capabilities.

Choose how you use it

Catalyst can be consumed in different ways depending on your needs:

- Out of the box offering delivers a quick to market solution, enabling a fully functional digital portal to be launched in a matter of months
- Customise the user journeys and the end user experience, working with our digital consultancy team to design a compelling custom experience aligned to your proposition
- Deploy the Catalyst framework then build and maintain your own bespoke version for complete autonomy over your roadmap
